

Halls Young Artist Competition 2019 Information Pack

Deadline for entries Friday 25th October 2019

Now in its 4th year the Halls Young Artist Competition, hosted by The Granary Art Gallery at Weston Park, is once again looking for the next generation of budding artists to stop the crowds with their work and schools across Shropshire and Staffordshire are invited to enter.

This year the theme is Queen Victoria and the Victorian Industrial Revolution as Weston Parks celebrates the 200th anniversary of her birth and the close links that Weston Park had with this iconic monarch. Children in primary and secondary education are therefore asked to create artworks on the theme of Queen Victoria or the Victorian Industrial Revolution to be in with the opportunity to win a cash prize for their school funds as well as art materials for themselves. We welcome all mediums such as paintings, photography, woodwork, printmaking, drawing and sculpture.

All shortlisted entries will be exhibited in the Granary Art Gallery during December 2019.

The competition is being generously supported by Shrewsbury based auction house, Halls. www.hallsgb.com
